

Research Participants Needed

Call for General Practice Nurses to participate in a research study

Study title: Perspectives of General Practice Nurses of caring for Culturally and Linguistically Diverse patients

The University of Limerick is seeking General Practice Nurses to participate in a national study exploring perspectives of caring for culturally and linguistically diverse patients.

What will I have to do if I wish to participate? Complete an online survey that will take you approximately 15 minutes

Why should I participate?

The findings of this study will help us to understand factors that enable and hinder culturally responsive care from the perspectives of general practice nurses, in Ireland.

Are you a nurse working in a General Practice Setting (including out-of-hours)? If so, we invite you to complete the following online survey

- Please access the following QR code using your smartphone camera to receive further information about the study and to access the online survey
